

Everyone at King's Hawaiian is heartbroken over the devastating wildfires in Maui and parts of the Big Island of Hawaii. The natural disaster has left families, victims and first responders in desperate need of aid. King's Hawaiian has deep roots in Hawaii, and we are working to support the victims and relief efforts happening on the ground. If you can join us and others in helping all those affected get the help and funding necessary to survive this tragic event that would be wonderful.

The following are a few recommended organizations which are working directly with community relief efforts. You can click the links below directly donate to any of these organizations.

1. Maui Strong Fund, hosted by the Hawai'i Community Foundation
2. Maui Food Bank

Mahalo for all that you can do to help.
